Hastings-Tousey Party Holds the

LOCKWOOD DRIVEN OUT.

Fort-Autopsy To-day. Seizures and raids were in order yesterday at No. 29 West 26th-st., the building owned by the late Mrs. Margaretta Todd, who was found dead on the tracks of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad at Philadelphia last Friday night. In spite of the armistice proclaimed last Monday In-gersoll Lockwood, the lawyer discharged by Mrs. Todd last June, who is executor under the will filed last Tuesday, returned to the building at 5 a. m. with the three detectives who were ejected from the premises last Monday night. Mr. Lock-wood ejected the manager and the servants, stationed a guard and took formal possession of the place, installing C. L. Foster as manager.

At 3:30 p. m. George Gordon Hustings, the lawyer of Mrs. Tousey, Mrs. Todd's daughter, arrived on the scene with more detectives, Sinclair Tousey. Mrs. Tousey's brother-in-law, and Theron Davis a member of his law firm. As soon as the mer hired by Mr. Lockwood saw the party approaching they locked the doors and made preparations to defend the house. Mr. Hastings and Mr. Tousey did not waste time in parleying, but immediately attacked the doors and forced an entrance.

ause we'll throw you out if you resist us," cried

The three men in the hall were inclined to hes tate, but the raiders marched them out. One man actually said that he wouldn't go, but he went along when his captor reminded him that they were all in the detective business together, and that pugnacity among the employes of the private agencies is not sustained by tradition.

Meanwhile Mr. Hastings ascended to the fourth floor where he found Ingersoll Lockwood in a be noccupied apartment. He refused to answer the knocking, but the door of the room was un locked. He was dressed, and said that he was tak-

"I'm sorry, but I must ask you to leave, and will he compelled to put you out if you don't go vol untarily," announced Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Lockwood at first refused to budge, but the arrival of Mr. Davis with two more detectives caused him to change his mind, and he arose and put on his coat. He said that he had a right to hold possession of the place pending the arrival of Mrs Tousey. He basel his claim on the will, his lease and a deed of trust, which no one has seen as yet He offered no resistance, however, and said that he would not attempt to take possession of the hous sigain until he had offered the will in probate.

sigain until he had offered the will in probate.

Mr. Lockwood, after having been ejected, went to the Tenderloin station and asked Captain Dooley to intervene. He told Captain Dooley that he was the executor of the estate, holding $15,000 in cash, and that he was the legal possissor of the house.

"There were twenty of these freebooters," he said. "They did not show a scrap of legal evidence that they had any right to enter the house. Only three or four of the men even showed badges, but they all had clubs."

Captain Dooley told him that he refused to be drawn into the case, and that it was one for the civil courts, not for him. He refused to give Lockwood any men to aid him in getting back into the nouse.

wood any men to aid him in getting back into the house.

One detective remained in charge of the Todd apartment all the rest of the day, and Mr. Lockwood at a late hour had not sought to disturb him. The manager, Mr. Amory, will not return to his place. On the request of Mr. Tousey Mr. Hastings will put one of his own men in the office to-day.

Mr. Hastings said last night that, while he knew that Lockwood's men would have been entirely within their rights in firing upon him and his raiding party, he believed that Lockwood was bluffing, and was determined to call his binfi. He said that Lockwood admits that he drew up a will for Mrs. Todd a year later than the one filed, but claims to have lost it.

Unlike the will filed, the last will does not make Lockwood an executor. Mr. Hastings claims to have a reputable witness who has seen the document since Mrs. Todd's death, and three others to whom Lockwood has mentioned the existence of the later will. He doubts the existence of the deed of trust placing the property in Lockwood's hands to deliver to Mrs. Touscy, and asserts that the lease is invalid.

The lease, which gives Lockwood an apartment

o deliver to Mrs. Tousey, and asserts that the case is invalid.

The lease, which gives Lockwood an apartment ree of rent and the charge of the house, was igned on April 14, 1992 Lockwood was to collect he rents and pay them to Mrs. Todd, minus 5 per cart. The lawyer never attempted to enforce the case until after the death of the woman, and Mr. Hastings believes that the document was never delivered. Lockwood says that Mrs. Todd gave him the ase as a form of payment. When she discharged in last June she got from him a receipt in full though she practically dispossessed him at that me. *Lockwood did iot attempt to enforce the aditions of the lease.

Coroner's Physician O'Hanion will perform the topsy on Mrs. Todd's body at 11 a. m. to-day at 1 rooms of the Stephen Merritt Burial Company, ave. and 19th-st.

To Investigate Murder of Missionaries-Miss Patterson Wounded.

London, Nov. 3 .- A special dispatch to "The Standard" from Hong Kong says that Miss E. G. Patterson, a member of the mission band at Lienchow, was badly wounded in the massacre which took place a few days ago, but escaped to the prefect's house. Her wounds are not believed to be dangerous. Her wonness are not behave been dispatched and three missionaries, Messrs. Noves, Beattle and Todd, have left Canton to investigate the outrage.

of Foreign Missions yesterday the Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, secretary of the board, said that he had just received the following cable message from Canton in reply to his inquiry sent to Canton yesterday:

Lienchow Station has been attacked and Mrs. Machle, Amy, Mr. Peale, Mrs. Peale, Chestnut, killed. Dr. Machle, Patterson, safe. Buildings destroyed.

Regarding the tragedy Dr. Brown in an interview we are almost overwhelmed by this tragedy. Letters from the field during the last year have not indicated any hostility or cause for alarm. The outbreak of violence that has now occurred can hardly have been anti-missionary. One of the missionaries who was killed, Dr. Eleanor Chestmut, was a physician, who had devoted herself for years to ministering to the sick and injured, and she was beloved by multitudes who cared nothing for Christianity. Of the others one was the wife and another the daughter of a physician, Dr. E. C. Machle, and the other two, the Rev and Mrs. John Eogers Feale, were new missionaries, who left this country August 16, and had been in Lienchow only a few days. It therefore appears probable that the attack was made by some mob which had gathered for another purpose and which gave law-less characters that opportunity for plunder and bloodshed which such characters are apt to seek in similar times anywhere in the world.

It should be added, however, as a possible infinence that the growing consciousness of unity

CHINESE COMMISSION COMING.

Emperor Wishes It to Visit America Before Drafting New Constitution,

Yu Chuan Chang, secretary of the imperial commission which is to draft a constitution for China, arrived here yesterday from Hamburg on the steamer Graf Waldersee. Apart from telling who the members of the commission are and the time they are expected to arrive in Washington, Mr. Chang was uncommunicative. He said that the young Emperor, with the approval of the Empress structed the members to make a careful study of the governments of the United States, Japan, France, Austria, Germany and England. He said;

I had been travelling about Europe on official pusiness, and on reaching Bérlin found a message it the Chinese Embassy ordering me to proceed it once to Washington and act as secretary to the commission.

This body is composed of Prince Tsai Chi, Tai Hung Chi, Tuan Fong, Governor of the Province of Hunan, and Hsu Kwong Chi. They spent several months in Tokio studying the important features of the Japanese government, and their visit to Washington will occupy about two months. After studying the governments of the other four countries the commission will return to China and formulate a plan for a constitutional monarchy. The chief features, of course, will be modelled from the government of Great Britain. The Emperor will consider the plan set forth by the commission, but I cannot say whether he will adopt it.

Mr. Chang is a graduate of Yale Law School. He will be the guest of Kit Fu Shah, the Chinese Con-sul General in New-York, and will start for Wash-ington pext week.

complication arose yesterday in the herring fishery situation at Bay of Islands, when the steamer Active, carrying eight small boatloads of local fishermen, sailed with the intention of proceeding outside the three-mile limit and there transferring the fishermen to American fishing vessels on which they would ship as members of the crews.

The colonial cruiser Fiona chased the Active and threatened her with seizure if she went beyond the three-mile limit without clearance papers. The Active thereupon returned. The ustoms authorities refuse to grant clearance papers to the steamer except for a bona fide voyage. The Americans are indignant and threaten to appeal to Washington for a warship. The British cruiser Latona is patroling the bay to prevent collisions between the rival

NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES QUESTION

Revived Interest in England - May Be Speedy Settlement.

London, Nov. 2.-More interest is being taken in London in the Newfoundland fisheries question since the matter was brought before the British government by Ambassador Reid. At the Foreign Office it was said to-day that the government thinks the United States is mistaken as to some of the facts, but the negotiations are proceeding in the most friendly manner, with every prospect of an early settlement The Newfoundland government has been instructed to abide by the treaty of 1818, and has been informed that it has no right to pre-vent American fishermen from using the island

Information has been received from New-foundland to the effect that nothing will be done by the government or fishermen to complicate
